Differs slightly from 4.0 in that it has nicer navigation options.	Itinerary	Navigation on the bottom of the page to quickly jump to the day. There is also a back button that takes you to a login page and this isn't intuitive at all. You can download the document in a pdf format. On mobile devices, the only option is the Day by Day navigation and the day can be really lengthy since it's not further broken up into sections. Overall comment about the carousel rotator that houses 11.0 - 14.0 that it doesn't loop back around once you get to the end.
